Welcome:

I toyed with the idea of doing all the apologies and decided against it as I doubt anybody cares! Hey! It took me a long time to get it done, so what? Big thanks to everyone who's supported this and everyone who will in the future.

From here on out the Punker Pages is going to be released ON TIME every 6 months in January and in July. I can guarantee this as I've set up a nice little system (which involves several backups of everything!).

Advertising:

This thing costs an arm and a leg to print, but if you don't have any limbs to spare please buy an ad. This issue is getting a distribution of 1000 copies so plenty of people will hear your cries.

Quarter page (b/w, 9.7x6.6cm): £10/€15/$20

Half page (b/w, 9.7x13.2cm): £15/€20/$30

Full page (b/w, 19.4x13.2cm): £20/€30/$40

Suggested sizes are roughly what they need to be but anything bigger is fine as I can reduce it. JPEG or GIFs ideal. Get in touch for more info. MASSIVE thanks to those who got ads in this one. They're all amazing, check them out.

Zinesters / Promoters / Labelers etc:

If you want to get in the directory just get in touch. The only requirement is that you contribute something to the punk scene, or you do something that these punk types might be vaguely interested in. Also if you're already in here and you want to change your details it's important that you let me know. If you're in here and you don't want to be then that's fine too, I can give you the boot. If you're a general reader and have noticed something wrong then please let me know too. Basically just talk to me, I don't bite and I'm pretty dependent on your input. The new system is that the Punker Pages is continually updated on a daily basis (maybe) and then compiled properly and distributed every 6 months.

Help!

If you think you can help out in any way whatsoever then please do! This could be help distributing the paper edition, linking to the digital edition or if you're an altruistic wealthy punk (do they exist?) then just send me some money please. If your details are in here and you're in some way grateful then it would be great if you could send a thank-you in the form of something saleable for the distro. You don't get if you don't ask, right?

So, enjoy, tell your friends, get in touch and get involved!

Cheers!

Chris x

tic kids, but after running a big house called "Skinhead Manor" in Hollywood during the summer of '80, a place where kids from all over Southern California met and exchanged ideas, the group was able to run a rather large nightclub called Godzilla's for about three months during late fall/winter in '81/'82. This gave them the incentive and the capital to promote shows at larger venues such as the Hollywood Palladium, Florentine Gardens, and various other halls around Southern California. From the success of promoting shows, BYO released its first LP, "Someone Got Their Head Kicked In," a compilation featuring some of the best bands from Southern California. Among those included were Social Distortion, Bad Religion, Adolescents, and Youth Brigade, and to this day that album is still considered one of the best representations of Southern California's early 80's punk explosion...fast forward to today, and BYO has had the great fortune of working with some of the greatest punk bands on the planet. With a current rosters of Throw Rag, The Briefs, Leatherface, Nothington, Filthy Thieving Bastards, Wednesday Night Heroes, and of course, Youth Brigade to name a few, we strive to keep it real and of course, keep it PUNK!!!!

Related Artists: The Bouncing Souls / Adrenaline O.D. / Detournement

Chunksaah Records...the 10-year-old brainchild of The Bouncing Souls, who rather than give up on their dream decided on the "d.i.y." approach to the record industry. It quickly became a family affair; symbolically named after its benefactor Timmy Chunks (notorious for his Queensaah accentahh) we knew the name was one that would leave a lasting impression, as well as represent the ties that started and have kept the label together. This d.i.y. approach to the record industry has been everything but glamorous. It involved learning and growing as a family in a familiar and ever changing scene. We have grown as a family remaining true to the original idea; a label free of industry jargon, lawyer-speak and pigeon-holing, but full of people who are willing to risk it all, work hard, and at the same time be treated equally, like family. We are simple folk trying to bring good music to good people in a tumultuous world.

Damaged Goods was started in 1988 from a living room in East London by Ian Damaged. The first release was a re-issue of the 1977 single by Slaughter And The Dogs 'Where Have All The Bootboys Gone?'. After great reviews in all the UK weeklies it was followed swiftly by the bands Debut album 'Do It Dog Style'. Releases by Adam & The Antz, Killjoys, Pork Dukes and Snivelling Shits followed. Originally DG was going to be a re-issue punk label but by 1990 the temptation to release current bands got too much and singles by The Roadholders, The Sect and the debut Manic Street Preachers followed.

This is a labour of love. D&G was started to release the In the Clear LP in 2001. This was the band I sung for and as it was breaking up I decided it to 'Do It Myself'. D&G is now approaching its 40th release and it wouldn't be worth a dime without the support it gets from the hardcore community, all the bands that we have released and everyone who helps push this along. We got lucky and started to release records in the midst of a UKHC boom I started another band called The Last Chance and we played out each weekend with Spitfire Down, The Legacy and The Break In whose records followed quickly after. The Last Chance led to me meeting the guys in Justice and one thing led to another and the world went mad. D&G became a much bigger beast than was ever intended so it has had to be reigned in., The real world, work, babies and reality have caused this to be case. D&G was never intended to be a money making machine (good job) and if the label seems to be quieter than it used to be....then it is!

Deck Cheese records was born in early 1998 as idea in the pub (like all great ideas!). Having worked on Big Cheese magazine together we decided to put together a compilation album that reflected the bands that appeared in the mag. Deck Cheese Volume One was released in the Autumn of '98 & was followed by Volume 2 in the summer of the following year. By this time we were receiving loads of quality demos from UK bands & decided to do a comp of UK only punk from all areas of the spectrum. The Beast Of British was the result, released in 2000. After the Beast's release one of the bands featured, Vanilla Pod were looking for a new label to put their new album out on & asked us. We jumped at the chance & since then it's snowballed into a fully out-of-control record label...

Run by the people who previously ran Punk Shit Records, namely Rich Lard with support from Huggy. The label is not open for loads of bands to keep sending requests to release stuff, the finances are low and releases will be few and far between unless of course people start to support underground punk bands by buying their CDs then maybe, but time will tell. The first 7 releases have been agreed. This label will be run as Punk Shit was, music over profit as any money made will be used to put out the next release, the CDs will be as cheap as possible.

JSNTGM has been in existence since the early 90's when I began working with different bands, putting on gigs and helping bands to put out vinyl. The term "Government Music" is in fact from the Dead Kennedys' song "Triumph of The Swill" which is on their "Bedtime for Democracy" album. "Triumph of The Swill" refers to the endless stream of garbage served up to us by the Music Industry Machine. This incessant flow of mind-numbingly nauseating musical propaganda is something I always found profoundly distasteful. This coupled with a profound disinterest in the traditional music business / industry (machine) was all the motivation I needed to set up this small independent label.

Agree or disagree with me but as the digital age of music comes ripping in I find myself missing the art. I miss holding the record, I miss reading every single lyric printed and every name on the thanks list. Paper and Plastick started for the bands that still love visual art to go with the music they put out and for the artists that use their creative energy to produce a backdrop of art for record covers, t-shirts, screen printed posters and every other facet of a band visually besides the music.

PUMPKIN RECORDS is more of a collective than a "Record Label". Bands on Pumpkin are on either because, we like them, they have helped us out, or we think they deserve helping out. No one is signed, contracts are bullshit and the bands are simply on a trust basis (fuck signing yourself and your music to someone else!) We do not deal with bands because we see them as "marketable", so if you are looking to conquer the world, have the right haircuts, wear the right clothes and burst onto the front page of NME don't bother here, like I said, we are a collective built on the basis of helping each other, not making millions. We are anti-racist, anti-homophobic, anti-fascist, anti-sexism, pro-choice, if you are racist, homophobic, fascist, sexist don't bother coming here. If you like us and what we do, feel free to send demos, we listen to all the bands, send us a message for contact details. Maybe buy something off our shop, no matter how small, the support helps! We aim to put out CD's cheap as possible, none of the £14.99 corporate bollox. We also put on gigs in the Southwest England area and book gigs and tours for the bands on our label, UK, Europe, America, Asia, Worldwide.

Red Scare Records

Red Scare Industries is a San Francisco punk rock imprint based out of Tobias Jeg's 2-bedroom apartment. His roommate isn't too thrilled about the boxes in the living room or the bands that stay over, but he's just gonna have to deal because things are going well and more bands are showing interest in working with Red Scare. The label was first conceived when good buddy Brendan Kelly was working on his project, The Falcon, and wanted an unknown label to release their debut EP. Thus it was hatched: Red Scare 101. Shortly after, Toby pleaded with Enemy You and begged to release their next record (Red Scare 102!), discovered Teenage Bottlerocket (yep, Red Scare 103), re-issued some classic records from the Lillingtons...next thing ya know we got a punk rock empire on our hands! Well sorta. Red Scare plans to keep working with quality bands that devote more time to writing great songs than they do working on their image. That seems to be a problem with today's punk scene, but we hope that quality bands will prevail in the end.

Somewhere between a vision and reality lies a hell of a lot of hard work, good and bad luck, a lifetime of sacrifice and probably not a lot of common sense. When I decided to start Suburban Noize Records it was simply trying to convert the lessons I learned in the music business, rock and roll high school, and the school of hard knocks, then apply them to releasing our Kottonmouth Kings records. Taking inspiration from rap and punk labels that lay the foundation and set a precedent for self empowerment, independence, and do it your self work ethics. Though Takeover's catalog began with Yellowcard's first three albums (Midget Tossing in 1997, Where We Stand in 1999 and the Still Standing EP in 2000), the label has since expanded its roster to include everything from straight-up punk to melodic piano rock. With nearly a decade of existence, Takeover Records has utilized extensive media collaborations, internet/street marketing, and the wildly popular "Sign My Band" contest to successfully broaden its horizons. Now, as an established force on the music landscape, the label continues to deliver innovative, new music to the masses.

Hey there! I'm Jon and I write a little 'zine called "you can't say no to hope...". It's basically a punk 'zine with no music and a focus on nature and the environment. It's 8 A5 pages, and it's FREE! I've been doing it since late 2003, with the first one out in that November with just 20 copies on white A6 paper. Now it's up to issue 13 on A5, the layout and content is a million times better, and I'm up to a few hundred copies! I'm trying to get away from the columns/interviews/reviews blueprint that most 'zines tend to have, so there's none of that in it!

Web: www.thecowleyclub.org.uk

Email: cowleyclub@yahoo.co.uk

Address: 12 London Road, Brighton, BN1 4JA, UK

ABC Brighton

Activism

Web: www.brightonabc.org.uk

Email: brightonabc@yahoo.co.uk

Address: PO Box 74, Brighton, BN1 4ZQ, UK

The Anarchist Black Cross was originated in Tsarist Russia to organize aid for political prisoners. In the late 1960s the organization resurfaced in Britain, where it first worked to aid prisoners of the Spanish resistance fighting the dictator Franco's police. Now it has expanded and groups are found in many countries around the world. We support anarchist and other class struggle prisoners, fund-raise on behalf of prisoners in need of funds for legal cases or otherwise, and organize demonstrations of solidarity with imprisoned anarchists and other prisoners.

Indymedia

Media

Web: www.indymedia.org

The Independent Media Center is a network of collectively run media outlets for the creation of radical, accurate, and passionate tellings of the truth. We work out of a love and inspiration for people who continue to work for a better world, despite corporate media's distortions and unwillingness to cover the efforts to free humanity.

Anarchist Teapot

Collective

Web: www.eco-action.org/teapot

Email: anarchisttpot@yahoo.co.uk

Address: PO Box 74, Brighton, BN1 4ZQ, UK

We are an anarchist collective that cooks at events we want to support. We are predominantly based in Brighton but have cooked at events all over the country. We cook affordable, vegan, GM-free and mostly organic food. We don't aim to make profits and we don't pay ourselves. If you are organising an event you would like us to cook at please get in touch.

UAF

Activism

Web: www.uaf.org.uk

Email: unite@ucu.org.uk

Address: PO Box 36871, London, WC1X 9XT, UK

Unite Against Fascism is a new national campaign with the aim of alerting British society to the rising threat of the extreme right, in particular the British National Party (BNP), gaining an electoral foothold in this country. We aim to unite the broadest possible spectrum of society to counter this threat.

Infoshop.org

Media

Web: www.infoshop.org

Address: PO Box 7171, Shawnee Mission, KS 66207, USA

The Alternative Media Project is the umbrella nonprofit for Infoshop.org, Practical Anarchy magazine, and several other publishing, journalism, and information dissemination projects.

World Can't Wait

Activism

Web: www.worldcantwait.net

Email: press@worldcantwait.org

Address: 305 W. Broadway #185, New York, NY 10013, USA

The World Can't Wait organizes people living in the United States to repudiate and stop the fascist direction initiated by the Bush Regime, including: the murderous, unjust and illegitimate occupations of Iraq and Afghanistan; the global "war of terror" of torture, rendition and spying; and the culture of bigotry, intolerance and greed. This direction cannot and will not be reversed by leaders who tell us to seek common ground with fascists, religious fanatics, and empire. It can only be possible by the people building a community of resistance - an independent mass movement of people - acting in the interests of humanity to stop, and demand prosecution, of these crimes.

Military Free Zone

Activism

Web: www.militaryfreezone.org

Email: info@militaryfreezone.org

A coalition of musicians and punk activists that want to take action and empower others to stand up and speak out against our government that is abusing its power by granting military recruiters access to students' private information. We also want to put an end to the system allowing these recruiters to use our public schools and institutions for recruiting students. We want to see recruiters stop misleading students with false promises of huge financial rewards for joining the armed services

Food Not Bombs

Collective

Web: www.foodnotbombs.net

Email: menu@foodnotbombs.net

Address: PO Box 424, Arroyo Seco, NM 87514, USA

Phone: 18008841136

Food Not Bombs shares free vegan and vegetarian meals with the hungry in over 1,000 cities around the world every week to protest war, poverty and the destruction of the environment. With over a billion people going hungry each day how can we spend billions on war?

Sub City

Charity

Web: www.subcity.net

In 1999 Hopeless Records formally started supporting non-profit organizations under the Sub City name with charitable albums, tours, and events. Now itself a registered 501c3 non profit organization, Sub City continues this mission of raising funds and awareness for worthy causes and to date has raised over $1.8 million dollars for over 50 non-profit organizations.
